

Grading Rubric: Day One

Evaluation of the Olympian Gods

Question Portion of Assignment

	Outstanding (Five Points)	Competent (Four Points)	Marginal (Two Points)	Not Available (Zero Points)	Student's Grade
Understanding	-Students were able to answer all ten questions on the guide sheet with a complete answer to each question that is consistent with the answer sheet.	-Students were able to answer at least seven questions on the guide sheet with a complete answer to each question that is consistent with the answer sheet.	-Students were able to answer at least five of the ten questions, with incompletes answer to each question that is consistent with the answer sheet.	-Students provide less than three answers to the questions in which they demonstrates no understanding of the task.
Proper Use of Resources	-Students demonstrate their ability to use more than six web sites to answers their questions, with independently, and seeks minimal guidance or assistance from teacher.	-Students demonstrate their ability to use at least four web sites to answer their questions with partial independence, and seeks additional assistance or guidance from the teacher.	-Students demonstrate minimal ability to use no more than two web sites to answer their questions with assistance from teacher, and work independently in a minimal amount of time.	-Students are un able to demonstrate their ability to use one web site from the internet with the maximal assistance from the teacher.

Grading Rubric: Day One

Evaluation of the Olympian Gods

Paragraph Portion of Assignment

	Outstanding (Five Points)	Competent (Four Points)	Marginal (Two Points)	Not Available (Zero Points)	Student's Grade
Length	-The student responded to the question with seven to eight sentences in length.	-The student responded to the question with five to six sentences in length	-The student responded to the question with a maximum of four sentences.	-The student responded to the question with a maximum of three sentences.
Understanding	-The student answered all five of the questions they were asked to consider on the activity page.	-The student answered three of the five questions they were asked to consider on the activity page.	-The student answered one of the questions asked to consider on the activity page.	-The student answered none of the questions asked to consider on the activity page.
Proper Use of Resources	-Students demonstrate their ability to use more than six web sites to answers their questions, with independently, and seeks minimal guidance or assistance from teacher.	-Students demonstrate their ability to use at least four web sites to answer their questions with partial independence, and seeks additional assistance or guidance from the teacher.	-Students demonstrate minimal ability to use no more than two web sites to answer their questions with assistance from teacher, and work independently in a minimal amount of time.	-Students are unable to demonstrate their ability to use one web site from the internet with the maximal assistance from the teacher.
Well written and grammatically correct.	-The paragraph contained three or fewer grammatical or mechanical errors.	-The paragraph contained five or fewer grammatical or mechanical errors.	-The paragraph contained seven or fewer grammatical or mechanical errors.	-The paragraph contains more than ten grammatical or mechanical errors.	